

Notice of Listing of New Cryptocurrencies: Polygon (MATIC) and Maker (MKR)*Launch of Campaign Where 15 Randomly Selected Winners Stand to Win up to 50,000 yen Each!

bitFlyer, Inc. (Head Office: Minato-ku, Tokyo; Representative Director: Masaaki Seki), which operates one of the largest cryptocurrency exchanges in Japan, is pleased to announce that we will be handling transactions for Polygon (MATIC) and Maker (MKR) on our company's altcoin sales platform starting from today. These will be the 16th and 17th cryptocurrencies listed on bitFlyer, respectively.

To commemorate the listing of these cryptocurrencies, we will be launching a campaign where 15 randomly selected winners stand to win up to 50,000 yen each.

We will strive to continue expanding the range of cryptocurrencies available as part of our efforts to improve convenience for our users.

The overview of the campaign is as follows.

■Campaign title

"Campaign to commemorate the listing of Polygon and Maker: 15 randomly selected winners will win up to 50,000 yen each!"

■Campaign overview

To commemorate the listing of Polygon (MATIC) and Maker (MKR), 15 winners who stand to win up to 50,000 yen each will be randomly selected through the drawing of lots from all users who have purchased cryptocurrencies on our sales platform after entering the campaign.

■ About Polygon (MATIC)

• Name of currency: Polygon

• Ticker symbol: MATIC

- Features: Polygon is a sidechain designed to address the scalability issues of the Ethereum blockchain, including its high transaction fees and slow processing speed, while complementing the Ethereum network. The Polygon chain has a Bridge feature that allows funds to be transferred between it and other blockchains, such as Ethereum, with relatively low fees on its own chain for transfers. In addition, Polygon is also used in practice as a utility token for various applications such as blockchain games, NFTs, dApps, etc.

■About Maker (MKR)

- Name of currency: Maker
- Ticker symbol: MKR
- Features: Maker is a governance token for the MakerDAO Project, a protocol that issues and handles the cryptocurrency DAI. By using various Ethereum-based cryptocurrencies as collateral, users can issue DAI and utilize dApps involving the use of DAI. Holders of Maker can also play a part in operational decision-making through voting.
